Discuss the following questions.

1. Tell your partner(s) about your grandparents. What kind of people are they? What have you learned from them?
2. What do you usually do on a bus or a train? Do you enjoy watching different passengers?
3. Look at the picture on the left. What do you think each person on the bus do for a living? What are your clues

During-reading Watch the video and then answer the following questions.

1. CJ's nana seemed to have the magic power to find something beautiful everywhere she went. In the book, CJ asked his nana a lot of questions. How did CJ's nana respond to each one? Read and match.

CJ's Questions	Nana's Answers
( ) 1. How come that man can't see?	(A) Trees get thirsty, too.
( ) 2. Sure wish I had one of those (phones).	(B) We got a bus that breathes fire.
( ) 3. How come we gotta wait for the bus in all this wet?	(C) What don't you ask the man (a guitar play) if he'll play us a song?
( ) 4. How come we always gotta go here after church? Miguel and Colby never have to go nowhere.	(D) Sometimes when you're surrounded by dirt, you're a better witness for what's beautiful.
( ) 5. How come it's always so dirty over here?	(E) Some people watch the world with their ears.
( ) 6. How come we don't got a car?	(F) I'm sorry for those boys. They'll never have a chance to meet Bobo and the Sunglass Man.

2. How much do you remember about the story? Fill in the blanks.

- (1) At the beginning of the story, CJ and his nana came out of a c_____ h.
- (2) Walking in the rain, Nana thought a big tree was drinking water through a s_____ w.
- (3) Mr. Dennis, the bus driver, did a magic trick by pulling a c_____ n from behind CJ's ear.
- (4) The man who was sitting across from CJ played a song with his g_____ r.
- (5) When CJ and his nana were walking to the soup kitchen, they saw a r_____ w in the sky.

3. From the last page of the book, what do you think a “soup kitchen” is? Take a guess and write ○ or ×.

- _____ (1) The food in a soup kitchen is expensive.
- _____ (2) People who eat at a soup kitchen may not have much money.
- _____ (3) People can order the dishes they want in a soup kitchen.
- _____ (4) There are usually long dining tables for people to sit together and eat.

4. Discuss with your classmates. How did the area near the soup kitchen look? What did CJ and his nana do in the soup kitchen? Why did they do so?

2. Think of yourself as CJ’s nana, and your young grandchild keeps asking you questions. How would you answer these questions wisely? Share your answers with the class.

(1) “Nana, how come I have to do homework every day? Playing online games is much more fun than doing homework.”

_____

(2) “Nana, some of my classmates have their own phones. How come I can’t have one, too?”

_____

(3) “Nana, carrots make me want to throw up. How come I should eat them?”

_____

(4) “Nana, many of my friends have traveled to other countries several times. Why haven’t we been to any foreign countries before?”
