

The Library Bus

Class: _____ No.: _____

Name: _____ Date: _____

Please answer the following questions.

1. Look at the cover of the book. What do you think this book will be about?

2. What do people usually do in libraries?

During reading Watch the video and answer the following questions.

1. What can the girls do on the library bus? Ans: _____

- (A) They can borrow books there.
- (B) They can sing English songs there.
- (C) They can learn to read and write in Farsi there.
- (D) They can get new pencils and notebooks there.

2. Why do Pari and her mother drive the library bus to villages and camps? Ans: _____

- (A) It's because people there don't know how to drive cars.
- (B) It's because they want to learn new languages from them.
- (C) It's because they want to get more books and sell them in the city.
- (D) It's because the girls there can't go to school and Pari's mother wants to help them learn.

3. Next year, where will Pari go and learn? Ans: _____

- (A) She will have classes on the Internet.
- (B) She will go to a real school in the city.
- (C) She will go to school in another country.
- (D) She will learn with other girls on the bus.

Post-reading Please answer the following questions after watching the video.

Kabul is the capital and largest city of Afghanistan. Not every girl there goes to school. Also, girls there have been forced out of high school since the Taliban returned to power in 2021. However, many of them refuse to give up in education. Some were lucky to start learning again in other countries or online, others were left school and had no chance to return.

1. Is it right or wrong to force girls out of school? Please explain your thoughts.

I think it is _____ to force girls out of school because _____

2. If you are forced out of school, will you give up learning or find chances to start learning again? Please explain your answer.

Post-activity What do you see?

Please answer the following questions and compare.

1. Use at least 5 words or 3 sentences to describe yourself.

2. Use at least 5 words or 3 sentences to describe the girls in the story.

3. What do you and the girls have in common?

4. What are the differences between you and the girls?

